

What Nancy's Coaching Clients say

Dr Sue Whitcombe

I just wanted to say "thank you". I have to confess to being a little sceptical about coaching previously, but working with you has addressed that! I guess what you do is similar to what I do – make apparent what is not apparent because our focus is elsewhere, our emotions are heightened, or we operate from a psychologically biased perspective. I felt quite invigorated, yet so much calmer.

I was asked to develop an International program and felt a bit lost as it was the first time I had ever done anything quite so large. The coaching sessions with Nancy were invaluable! Her knowledge of business, Interpersonal relationship management, international and cultural considerations was a huge asset to me and avoided many trouble spots I had not considered. She held me accountable to my goals in a respectful and clear way. Her coaching was invaluable to the project and to my own professional growth. I would be happy to be in contact with anyone who has further questions. Her coaching was a wonderful asset to my project.

Nancy has an easy way about her and has an uncanny knack of ensuring you arrive at the answer you require rather than just plainly providing the answer to you or giving you an answer you'd love to hear - she is exceptionally honest and her professional integrity is second to none

I really liked being able to email you when things went really well—or not. The discipline of this was constructive for me.

You helped me articulate what I find challenging and therefore I am able to start overcoming these challenges. I cannot thank you enough for your help, support and providing me the accountability I needed.

Great rapport from the start

Challenged in a positive and productive way to look at situations in a different context

..things have moved on and I now feel in a position to make the choices I need to make. I would like to take this opportunity to say a big thank-you for the support you have given me in the coaching sessions. I have very much appreciated being challenged to look at some things in a different context and very grateful."

It was very helpful talking to you yesterday morning. It released something in my head. I know not what exactly. Then I have read all your helpful information. I do not want to burn my hands or stay in a prison. That could have been a ground breaking moment too. Then the lovely poem also. You sound such a talented lady. I will know where to make contact should things get difficult for me. Then of course I can recommend you to people who would benefit from help you can offer. With grateful thanks

Just a note of thanks Nancy as i found it fascinating and so helpful. I will be making a number of changes.

Useful tools and enjoyed thinking about my own reactions/feelings

The coaching got me thinking differently about how to approach my work situation. I was able to develop a way out of the company with my dignity and relationships in tact.
